

I am in complete support of New Jersey's donotcall law. It has given me so much more peace of mind and enjoyment of my suppertime. It also helps to eliminate the necessity for these special annoying restrictions placed on home calls where you have to identify yourself to friends and associates before connecting. Let's side with the citizens for a change!